Online Colour Supplement

After a very difficult 18 months or more of very little happening and therefore very little income, Seend Community Centre is back to being the village hub that it used to be.

Here's some evidence! Live music in the bar, the Macmillan Coffee morning and the 'Not the Panto Show'!

Thanks to Petra, Tom and James for the photos.

We'd love to receive some feedback on the online colour supplement idea. Let us know if you find it of interest by Thanks.
